

Eadington Fellowships

Short-term residencies for gaming research at UNLV Special Collections

The Center for Gaming Research at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas invites interested scholars to apply for the 2015-16 cycle of William R. Eadington fellowships, which facilitate research into many aspects of both gambling and Las Vegas at UNLV Special Collections in the University Libraries.

Fellowship Criteria

Eadington fellowships are intended for graduate students, junior faculty, and senior faculty conducting research that will be incorporated into a dissertation, book, or other major research project

In the 2015-16 academic year, the Center will award two types of Eadington fellowships:

- Four-week Resident Fellowships offer a $3,000 stipend and can be completed any time before September 1, 2016.
- Two-week Visiting Fellowships offer a $1,500 stipend and must be completed by May 31, 2016.

All Eadington fellows will:

- complete a residency at Special Collections;
- deliver a public talk (which is recorded as part of the Center's podcast series); and
- contribute a brief paper to the Center's Occasional Paper Series.

To Apply

For the 2014-2015 academic year, please submit the following by July 23, 2015:

1. A cover letter briefly introducing yourself, indicating clearly whether you are applying for the Resident or Visiting Eadington fellowship, and when you would prefer to schedule your residency
2. A short (2-3 page) description of the proposed research, with details on secondary research already done and sources to be used at UNLV
3. A full curriculum vitae
4. For graduate students, one letter of recommendation that evaluates your past research and current project

All materials must be sent electronically; the first three items should be sent in a single pdf file, with the letter of recommendation sent by the recommender directly to the center's director, Dr. David G. Schwartz, at dgs@unlv.nevada.edu.

Successful applicants will be notified by August 10, 2015.

About the Program

Awarded since 2007 and renamed in honor of William R. Eadington in 2013, the Eadington Fellowships are intended to foster scholarship focused on gambling issues and to encourage the use of the rare and unique collections at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

Dr. Eadington (1946- 2013) pioneered the academic study of gambling, both in Nevada and worldwide. He was the first holder of the Philip J. Satre chair in Gaming Studies, a professor of economics, and founding director of the Institute for the Study of Gambling and Commercial Gaming at the University of Nevada, Reno (UNR).

Past Eadington Fellows have completed dissertations, published academic articles, and published books based their research at UNLV Special Collections.
